Attendance monitoring at Cranford Primary School

Cranford Primary School Attendance Policy

At Cranford Primary School we work with our families to support attendance expectations. We expect children to come to school on time and every day. We strongly believe that regular school attendance is essential if a child is to take full advantage of the educational opportunities on offer. Irregular attendance and poor punctuality will always affect a child's achievement in school. Therefore, we work closely with the School Attendance Support Service (Hounslow LA) to monitor children's attendance and punctuality rigorously, intervening and supporting where necessary.

The attendance team at our school monitors and supports attendance throughout the school year. Miss Khabra (DHT), Ms Achoukhi (Attendance officer) and Mrs Chandarana (School Administration officer) work together as part of the attendance team. If a parent is concerned about attendance or has any questions about attendance, they are able to contact the attendance team using the school phone number and/or email address.

Did you know?

It is the legal responsibility of parents of children of compulsory school age to ensure that they receive a full time education and attend school regularly. (Education Act 1981 section 17 & 199)
The school will work to establish a partnership with parents so that we can work together to ensure the good attendance of all pupils. If a parent/carer allows their children to stay away from school without good reason they may be prosecuted.

Promoting attendance at Cranford Primary School:

We promote attendance by:

- Weekly certificates + Trophy/ Attendance bear awarded to the class with the best attendance
- Weekly House competition for attendance and punctuality shared during assemblies
- 100% attendance certificates for pupils each term
- 100% attendance Golden ticket lunch with the Headteacher
- Giving the children a chance to win a prize for 100% attendance

How you can promote attendance at home:

- Explain to your child why regular attendance is important and how it helps them to make progress in their learning
- Discuss their attendance following parents evening discussions

- Ask your child about the weekly certificates / House attendance competition
- Praise your child for good attendance
- Support the school by informing us if your child is absent and letting us know when they will be back at school (Please refer to the absence reporting procedure below)
- Working with the attendance team if you need support with attendance

The Governing Body and school expect 100% attendance but understand that from time to time some children will fall ill and require time off. Parents of a child who is ill should follow the procedure outlined below:

The absence procedure at Cranford Primary School is as follows:

- Parent/carer must contact the school between 8.00am and 9.00am on the first day of a child's absence and give a reason for the absence.
- On subsequent days of absence, the parent/carer should call the school again to give an update.
- On the child's return to school, medical evidence should be provided for all absences of three days or more.
- All routine medical and dental appointments should be made after school time.

Term Time Leave:

- Holidays in term time are NOT allowed. The school is closed for 13 weeks each year and holidays must only be taken during this time.
- If you have to take term time leave for an emergency, please use this link <https://forms.gle/ReBoHouxCZATWL5f9> to complete the Term Time Leave Request Form before you travel. Please ensure you have a copy of your travel tickets as the form will ask you to upload them. (This link is also available on the website and a hardcopy is available on request)
- Any absences in term time will be rigorously followed up by the attendance officer and home visits will be made.
- Any absence leading up to the start of a school holiday or following directly on from a school holiday will be deemed as unauthorised unless medical evidence is provided.

How do we monitor attendance at Cranford Primary School:

- Weekly meeting to discuss under 92% attendance analysis (Attendance officer and SLT Attendance lead)
- Regularly discuss cases and communicate with parents through letters and meetings to discuss reasons for absence and support needed
- Set targets to monitor and improve attendance
- Discuss TTL cases and arrange a meeting with a member of the attendance team and parents to share evidence

- Each half term, school attendance data is compared and analysed against local and national attendance school data

- to work with the school and to advise on attendance.

The school receives regular monitoring visits from the SASS. The frequency of the visits is weekly. In general, class teachers and/or the Headteacher should have spoken to parents prior to the involvement of the SASS.

Procedures to monitor attendance/punctuality

1. Daily: the Attendance Officer will identify absentees and use Group-call to send text/emails to parents who have not supplied a reason for absence.
2. If no response by 11am the admin will follow up by calling parent/ carer and recording reasons given for absence on Group-call printout.
3. If no response by via personal calling, send an email
4. Further nil response should be followed by contacting SASS to intervene
5. Headteacher to monitor regularly
6. The Attendance Officer will send out contact updates with return slips once annually.

Where a child's attendance gives cause for concern, class teachers must speak to parents and also report concerns to the Headteacher.

Children who leave the school site during the school day will be recorded by the school office in a book which is kept for that purpose in the School Office.

On arrival at school, the register is taken by the class teacher. Children not in the classroom at this time and who arrive up to 30 minutes after their start time will be marked late (L code in the register). Registers are closed 30 minutes after the child's start time. A child arriving at school 30 minutes or more late will be marked as U which will affect the child's attendance percentage.

Categorising Absence

The school must distinguish between authorised and unauthorised absence. The following guidance is offered to help in deciding if an absence is authorised or unauthorised. It should be noted that only the school can approve absence and not parents. If a parent offers an explanation for an absence, but it is not considered to be a valid reason, the school does not have to accept it.

An absence would be authorised if

- the child was ill or prevented from attending by any unavoidable cause
- the child was on leave previously agreed by the Head teacher because of a family emergency
- it is day of religious observance for the family(one per year)
- there has been a family bereavement
- the child has an urgent medical appointment- all other medical appointments should be arranged out of school time (please note only the AM or PM session would be authorised if the appointment takes place during the morning or the afternoon and evidence would be needed)

An absence would be unauthorised if

- the child was taken shopping for the day
- the child was taken on a day trip e.g. to Thorpe Park
- the child was on leave which either has not been agreed with the Headteacher or on leave beyond that agreed with the Headteacher
- there was sickness of family member
- indulgence of child's wish to stay at home
- the child is taken on holiday during term time.

Persistent/ severe absence:

If a pupil's overall attendance begins to deteriorate significantly, it may be classified as persistent/ severe absence.

Persistent absence: If a pupil's overall absence rate is 10% or higher of their possible sessions, they're classified as a persistent absentee. A 'session' is 1 morning or afternoon in school.

Severe absence: If a pupil's overall absence rate is 50% or higher, they're classified as a severe absentee.

In order to support parents and pupils to reduce persistent absences, the school and the attendance team will monitor attendance data closely (using the strategies mentioned above) and will also support families through sharing information regarding key services (provided by the Local Authority). The most suitable service will be identified to remove barriers to attendance.

Extended Leave of Absence

Due to the nature of the community served by the school, parents frequently request extended leave of absence for their children. The Headteacher can only grant children leave of absence during term time under exceptional emergency circumstances. All applications are recorded, parents are interviewed by the attendance team and asked to provide evidence if applicable.

The Headteacher ensures parents are fully aware of the school policy relating to leave of absence and the effect this may have on their child's achievement in school. Each request is considered on an individual basis according to the particular circumstances.

Punctuality

The school expects children to arrive at school on time to enable the teaching day to start promptly and to ensure a minimum amount of interruptions. Class teachers report at progress meetings if children are often late, missing the first important part of the day. Lateness is monitored through the use of a late book at the main door and a letter will be sent by the Attendance Officer if the child is consistently late.

Children who arrive after the register has been completed must go to the school office to be registered there.

Regularly arriving late to school has a huge impact on a child's learning and parents are expected to ensure good punctuality.

Did you know?

This table shows how much learning can be lost if your child is late to school:

5 mins late every day	3.4 days of learning lost every year
10 minutes late every day	6.9 days of learning lost every year
15 minutes late every day	10.3 days of learning lost every year
20 minutes late every day	13.8 days of learning lost every year

Fixed penalty notices:

Term Time Leave

If a pupil takes unauthorised term time leave for 10 consecutive sessions or more (generally 5 days) they will be subject to a penalty notice. The fine for a penalty notice is increasing - to £80 per parent, per child. This increases to £160 if paid after 21 days but within 28 days for pupils who are of statutory school age. If a penalty notice remains unpaid, parents may be the subject of court proceedings for failing to ensure the regular school attendance of their child and this could result in a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a term of imprisonment of up to 3 months per parent.

For second offences of unauthorised term time leave (10 consecutive sessions or more) within a three-year rolling period, the fine is a flat £160 per parent, per child.

For the third offence in a three-year rolling period, the referral will be automatically considered for prosecution in relation to Section 444 Education Act 1996.

These fines will apply to term time leave taken after 19th August 2024. Any penalty notice issued for any offence that begins prior to the 19th of August will be issued under the previous rules. The new rules only apply if children are absent from school from the new term starting in September.

The three-year rolling period begins from the date the first PN fine is issued to the parent after 19th of August 2024. Any PN fine issued to parents before this date does not count towards the 'three-year rolling period' rule.

Irregular School Attendance Over Time

If a parent is willing to support their child and the school in improving school attendance, and engage with school to achieve this, an Attendance Contract will be offered. This is a way of school and parents working together to improve attendance in a supportive and nurturing way. Having an Attendance Contract in place will mean regular informal meetings to identify any barriers to a pupil's attendance and discuss what support can put in place to overcome those barriers.

If a parent is not engaging with any offers of support from school, and attendance continues to decline, the school may use a different method of support, called a Notice to Improve. This is a last effort to engage parents before legal sanctions are considered. A Notice to Improve will be a formal collaboration between the school, the Local Authority and parents.

If these attempts at formal support fail, and a pupil's attendance continues to be a concern, the school will make a referral to the Local Authority for legal sanctions to be considered. If a pupil has unauthorised absences for ten sessions or more in a 10-week period, the school may refer a parent for a penalty notice. This will be charged at £80 per parent, per child. This increases to £160 if paid after 21 days but within 28 days for pupils who are of statutory school age. If a penalty notice remains unpaid, parents may be the subject of court proceedings for failing to ensure the regular school attendance of their child and this could result in a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a term of imprisonment of up to three months per parent.

Requests for Absence

Requests for absence should be made by parents in line with the school's Attendance Policy. This will be completed with the form(<https://forms.gle/ReBoHouxCZATWL5f9>) with the date of the proposed absence and as much detail as possible about the reason for the absence. As is currently the case, Headteachers may still only authorise absence that they consider to be an unavoidable and exceptional circumstance. The school will reply to parents to advise them whether the absence will be authorised or not.

Publication of Information

Each year parents receive a registration certificate which provides details of their child's attendance and punctuality.

School attendance information is included in the School Brochure and on the school website.

At the termly parents' meetings, teachers speak to all parents about attendance and punctuality data for the term. In addition, certificates are presented to children with 100% attendance each term and at the end of the year for 100% attendance between September and July.
