

Head Teacher and Deputy Head Teacher for a Day!

Dear Diary,

Yesterday, Imran and I got to greet parents and ask them how they feel about the school. At lunch, we ate with Mrs Chana in her office. In the afternoon, we went on a health and safety walk with Mrs Edet and even did some photocopying! Before the end of the day, we went to Nursery and read them a story. Finally, we went and helped with assembly. It was a great day!

By Imran and Aliyah

Right of the Term!

Topaz Class voted for this half term's article!

We voted for this article because we think it is important for children to have time to relax and enjoy playing.

By Topaz Class

The Jack-o-lantern

One Halloween, there lived a young girl names Susie. Susie was a naughty girl. One day, she snuck out of school with her friends to see a haunted house. Her friends warned her not to go in there but Susie did not listen. "Susie, don't go in there!" Screamed her friend, Kate. There was a maze right in front of the haunted house but she did not know a very important thing. Whoever went in never came back.

She went into the maze and got startled by a scarecrow with a pumpkin for a head. She smashed the pumpkin and ran off further into the maze. She soon came across a ballerina who had a nice pink tutu. Susie pushed the ballerina and again, ran off further and further into the maze. Finally, she found the exit and sprinted towards the haunted house. What she did not know, is the displays were alive in the Halloween spirit. They all followed Susie into the haunted house.

Near the entrance, there was a huge Jack-o-lantern. Suddenly, its eyes turned red and the doors shut behind her. She instantly looked around and so the Jack-o-lantern. She sprinted up the stairs and nearly hit a cobweb. Suddenly, they hit her head as they tripped over each other. Susie realised that she needed to remove their curse by saying the curse backwards. She ran into the maze and after circles and circles, she finally got out of the maze screaming for help.

"Help me! Please!" Bellowed Susie over and over again. They would not believe her. She ran to the graveyard and recited the curse backwards. "I hereby remove this curse! On Hallows Eve, when you weep. I will see you and you will see me!" Suddenly, the Jack-o-lantern returned to the haunted house. Susie went home and hugged her parents while saying, "I promise I will never be naughty again!"

By Alisha

In this issue:

- What is on in Early Years?
- Interviews with Miss Safir!
- Halloween Stories!
- Autumn 1 Learning!

Interview with Miss Safir!

What is your favourite book?

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

What is your favourite animal?

Rabbit

What is your favourite subject?

Music

What is your favourite hobby?

Playing the piano.

When is a time that you struggled with something but got through it?

Training to be a teacher.

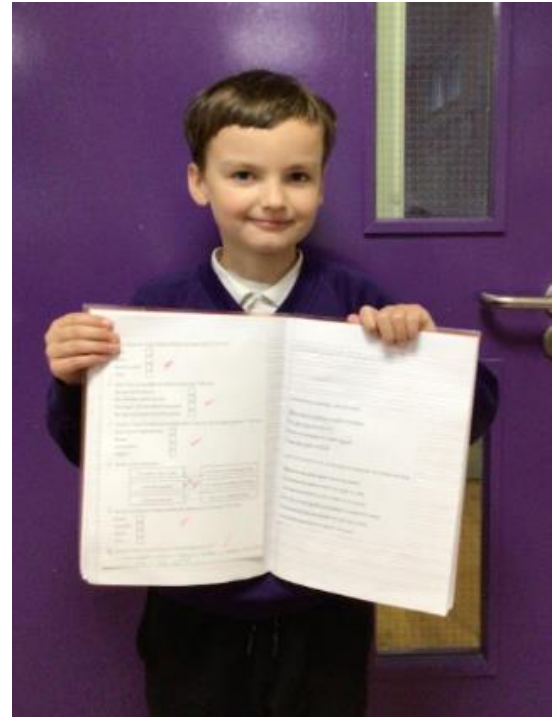

What is it like being a teacher?

Tiring but lots of fun!

How long have you been a teacher?

2 years

By Ali

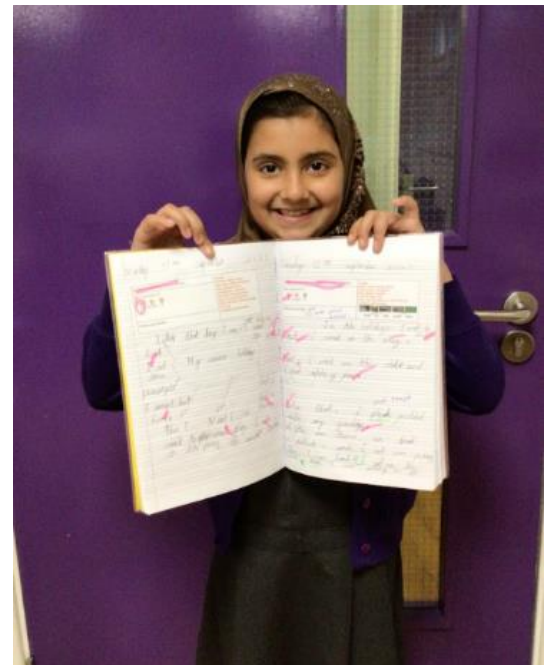

It is my favourite piece of work because my work is really good and it is very neat.

By Dorian

Miss Safir's Interview

By Safaa

- ① What is your favourite food?
Noodle
- ② Which pet do you like?
Rabbit
- ③ What's your favourite colour?
Blue
- ④ What colour shoes do you like?
white
- ⑤ What is your favourite class?
Indigo
- ⑥ Which is your favourite country?
Turkey
- ⑦ How old ~~is~~ are you?
23

I like this work because my handwriting is neat and I worked really hard on this work.

By Laila

Year 5 Autumn 1 Learning!

Art

My favourite thing I have learnt at CPS was in 3. We learnt about pop-up cards and got to make them. I liked this because I like arts and crafts. I think I am very creative.

By Alyssa

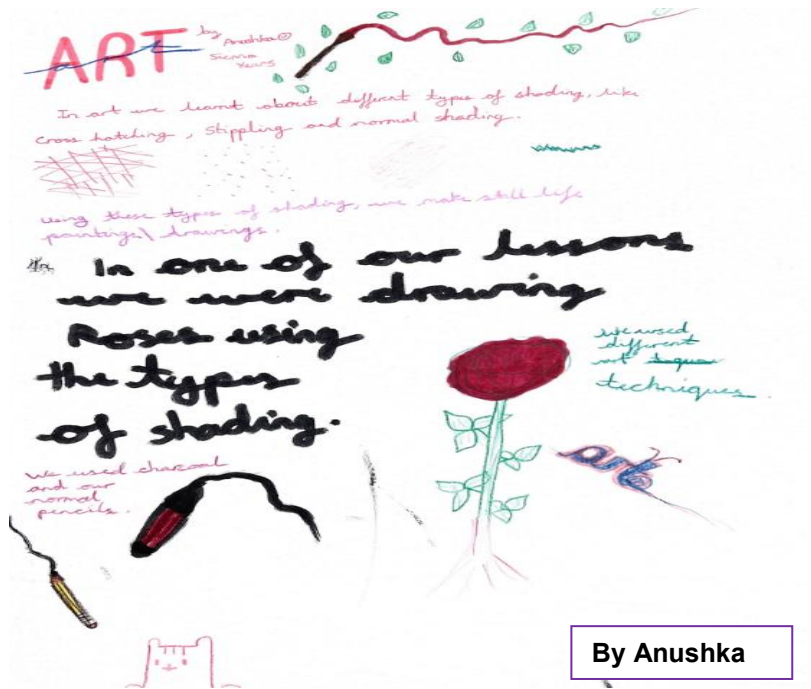

By Bushra

Pop-up Cards

My favourite time making or doing something in class was making pop-up cards because it was very interesting. As well as this, it made my scissor skills, drawing and crafting things better.

By Verdun

By Anushka

Early Years!

The Leaf Man

Reception read the story 'The Leaf Man' in their classes
Children were name writing on the leaves they collected from the school environment.

By Reception

Stepping Back In Time: Legends of Time Day!

Legends of Time Day

At CPS, children are learning about Black History Month. Each class learnt about one of the black heroes of Black History Month. Black heroes are people who stood up for the black society and their rights such as Pelé, Rosa Parks and Malcom X. At CPS, it is important to learn about Black History month because it shows that CPS cares about all of their children no matter what, and it does not matter where we come from.

It all started on December 1st 1955 when Rosa Parks was on a bus. Suddenly, a white person went on the same bus. Then, Rosa Parks sat on her seat firmly. There was no more seats left and before (in 1955), black people had to give up their seats for white people. Rosa Parks refused and sat firmly. Everyone stared at her in disbelief. They called the bus driver but she would not stand. She was arrested by she gave people hope.

By Alisha

Pelé

Pelé was a legend of time because he was the first ever footballer to win three world cups.

Pelé got 3 yellow cards and 0 red cards in his whole career.

Pelé was the first ever footballer to score 1281 goals!

Pelé made most of the skills that other footballers still use in football today.

By Arib

Wangari Maathai:
Wangari Maathai is a Kenyan environmentalist and activist who cares about plants and trees. Wangari Maathai is determined to grow more plants. This is why she is my legend.

CPS are Preparing for Spooky Season!

Halloween

In the deep, dark sky, where the monsters lived, you can see the shining. Bright stars glistening in the darkness. Full of excitement, Dave wore a gigantic smile on his face – ready for Halloween. He dashed to each house one-by-one waiting for a handful of sweets which he would devour, until...He had one house left. 'Miss Penny's'.

Miss Penny was no ordinary woman. She was an evil witch (at least that is what everyone thought). She had sharp, pointy and rough fingers, an evil smile and a chin pointier than the top of a mountain. She was evil. No one dared to go to her house; however, Dave was not going to let some woman stop him. Deep down, Dave was scared but he was not going to let that stop him. With the temptation of leaving, he rang the doorbell.

'Ding Dong' it rang. Sweating from head to toe, Dave waited for the door to open. "What is this rat doing at my door?" She said. Dave was dead silent. "Speak up!" She moaned. Dave asked her in the most scared voice, "Trick or treat." Miss Penny looked at Dave for a moment, and then gave him one singular chocolate bar. Dave smiled and jogged back on his way home. He said to himself, "That wasn't so bad after all!"

By Gurshant

What would you like to read about in the next issue?

Have a discussion with your class and let your news editors know!