

Meet our Class representatives

Amaya

Reading ambassador

- Promote a love of reading and literacy around the school
- Supporting teachers and peers in the library
- Organising and supporting at events such as book fairs
- Encouraging a reading culture by completing fun reading challenges
- Responsible for reading spaces around the school

Ella-Ray

Wellbeing warriors

- Meet with Mr Whitfield to discuss future clubs at our school at lunchtime and after school.
- Have the responsibility to monitor the physical activity taking place in the classroom.
- Trained by Mr Whitfield to be able to run warm ups for the class in PE lessons.

Rolina

News Editors

- Complete 2 given tasks each half term to go towards the newspaper.
- Gather information and photos that could be used in the newspaper.
- Discuss with their class what they would like to be included in future editions.
- Edit the newspaper with the support of Newspaper leads.

Ivy

Eco Warriors

- Eco warriors have a very important role in promoting our sustainable schools agenda. Including:
- helping to conserve energy - such as turning off lights/IWB etc when not in use
- Litter monitoring- carrying out litter picks around the school grounds
- Informing others of the impact we are having on our environment
- Developing ideas for projects such as recycling bins.

Mehransh

School Parliament

- Class voice to bring up anything that the children in the class have enquired about/asked for.
- Representative of the class and advocate for positive change brought about by the children.
- Meets with School Parliament and helps to discuss the points brought up at the meeting.
- Helps guide the class with any discussions/tasks arising from SP meetings.
- Feedback the meeting outcomes to the class.